SPURGEON

WROTE

DEAR MR. CONGREVE:—As a rule I have no faith in advertised remedies; but I must now be some twenty-five years since first I saw in the person of one of my students the effects of your remedy. It seemed that death's door, but he lives now, a strong, hearty man. Since then I have seen in many, very many instances, the most happy results following your medicine.
I do not go by hearsay, but I testify to what I have seen with my own eyes. I believe that you have saved numbers from Consumption. I have friends with coughs and weak lungs, who speak of your medicine with sincere gratitude. Personally, I find it most useful in the case of wasting cough. Very respectfully do I give testimonials for publication; but I send you this as your due. What I have seen of God's healing power through you, demands of me that I speak for the good of others. I have those around me whose health I value, and they are living witnesses that yours is a very beneficial preparation.
Yours heartily,
(Rev.) C. H. SPURGEON,
"Westwood," Beulah Hill, England.

recommended in my treatment.

ELECTION NOTICE.

OFFICE OF COUNTY CLERK, March 21, 1893.

TO THE ELECTORS OF ONEIDA COUNTY:—

Notice is hereby given that a judicial election is to be held in the several towns, wards and election precincts in the county of Oneida on the 4th day of April, 1893, at which the officers named below are to be chosen. The names of the candidates for each office to be voted for, whose nominations have been certified to this office, and the questions submitted to a vote are given opposite the name of the office and under the appropriate party or other designation, each in its appropriate column.

INFORMATION TO VOTERS.

Voters will receive a ballot from a ballot clerk upon entering the polling place, and giving his name and residence. None other can be used. Upon receiving your ballot, retire alone to a booth or compartment and prepare your ballot. A ballot clerk may inform you as to the proper manner of marking a ballot, but he must not advise you or indicate in any manner whom to vote for. If you wish to vote for some of the candidates of different political parties, erase the names of the candidates you do not desire to vote for and make a cross mark, X, after the name of each candidate you desire to vote for. If you wish to vote for a person for a certain office, whose name is not on the ballot, write or insert by a pasteur, the name, in the blank space under the printed name of the candidates for the office, and mark a cross, X, in the square at the right of it. Do not mark your ballot in any other way. If you spoil your ballot, return it to the ballot clerk and get another; you cannot get more than three in all. Five minutes' time is allowed in booth to mark ballot. Unofficial ballots or memorandum, to assist the voter in marking his ballot, can be taken into the booth and may be used to copy from. Do not show any one how you have marked your ballot. After marking ballot, fold it so that the inside cannot be seen, but so that the printed indorsements and signatures of the ballot clerks on outside may be seen. Then pass out of the booth, give your name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, hand him your ballot to be placed in box, and pass out of voting place. A voter who declares to presiding officer that he is unable to read, or that by reason of physical disability he is unable to mark his ballot, can have assistance of one or two election officers in marking same, to be chosen by the voter. Vegetable Boa Constrictors.

Portions of the South Pacific ocean produce a wonderful species of the seaweed called the "vegetable boa constrictor." They are likely to be met with at any point between the lower point of southern California and the Sandwich Islands on the one side and between Chili and Australia on the other. These vine-like stranglers are frequently found tightly entwined about the body of a dead whale, shark or porpoise, but whether they had fastened upon the bodies of these dead sea animals before life had become extinct or had only ventured to attack the remains after the vital spark had fled are conundrums which of course cannot be answered. Experiments made with this curious vine and the carcass of a porpoise washed ashore in the harbor at Apia tend to prove that the vine, like that of our common bean, will not entwine itself around anything dead, whether that thing be of vegetable or animal creation.

Dr. Chedbourne, in his "Annals of the Caroline Islands," says: "I have often seen monster specimens of encrusting (the giant seaweed) with every vestige of life squeezed out of them by that ocean demon, the constrictor vine which is itself a species of seaweed. Macrocystis often grows to be from 20 to 30 inches in diameter and 1,500 to 2,000 feet in length, while the constrictor vine seldom exceeds 100 feet in length and is never larger in diameter than a pound and a half salmon can. It is the 'squeeze snake' of the ocean, however, and woe to the unlucky man, animal or plant that comes within its reach."—St. Louis Republic.

Deceitful Appearance.

I was chatting with a Montague street real estate man in his office a few days ago, when a woman entered who attracted the attention of both of us. She was middle aged, very plain in face and figure and wore a black dress which was patched and ripped in many places. Her entire appearance denoted poverty and misery and indicated that she had a great struggle to keep the wolf from entering at her door. Instinctively feeling that the woman was a beggar, we were about to offer her some money, when she astonished us a little by saying she had some private business with the real estate man.

They went into his inner office and were engaged for about fifteen minutes in earnest conversation. After she had gone and my friend had ceased to gaze in open mouthed amazement at her vanishing figure, he enlightened me as to her object in the following manner: "Well, I'll be darned! That woman wanted to buy a $10,000 piece of property I have for sale, and she had $2,000 in her pocket to pay down to him the bargain. O Lord, think if I had offered her ten cents and told her to clear out!"—Brooklyn Eagle.

Not to Be Outdone.

Governor Turney, of Tennessee, tells a good story and has a keen appreciation of fun. Once while his regiment was in winter quarters with a Georgia regiment a religious revival was started in camp. An officer told him one day that twelve of the Georgians had been converted.

"How many of our men professed Christianity?" he asked.

"None, sir."

"What! what!" he said, "none of my men converted? It will never do for Georgia to get ahead of Tennessee. Sergeant, detail eighteen of my men for baptism at once."—New York World.

An Excellent Physician.

Among the "characters" in the little Hoosier town which proudly owns me as a favorite son is an Irishwoman by the name of Lynch. Not long ago Mrs. Lynch made a visit to the town cemetery. The sexton welcomed the old lady with a mournful smile and said sympathetically:

"You have quite a number of little graves to look after, Mrs. Lynch?"

"Yes, God be praised, I have. I have nine children buried here."

"What physician do you employ, Mrs. Lynch?"

"Dochter Brown, bavin bless him!"

He's the only doctor in town who understood the constitution of me childer."—Washington Post.

Men's High Priced Shirts.

There was a time when all linen shirts were generally worn by the rich men of the town, and there are a number of the old guard and many of the younger men of the town that pay so much as twelve dollars each or $144 per dozen for their fine white all linen shirts. These are with and without collars and cuffs. The laundrymen do not get a chance at them. Some old fashioned retainer handles them tenderly and gets the homelike, dull finish on the starched shirt front.—Clothier and Furnisher.

Making Apple Pies.

"Dear me suz," said Mrs. Smith, wearily. "I might about as well quit tryin' to cook. I hain't nothin' to make pies from exceptin' rotten apples an' there ain't a bit o' sugar in the house. Here, Robbie, you run over to Mrs. Green and ask her to let me have a cup o' sugar till tomorrow."

"What's your mother doin' this mornin', Robbie?" asked Mrs. Green as she filled the cup.

"She's makin' rotten apple pies."—Exchange.

Longevity in England.

The death rate in the Peak of Derbyshire is so low that the district rivals in salubrity the American village which was so extraordinarily healthy that the inhabitants who wished to "shuffle off this mortal coil" had to migrate into a neighboring town. The mortality at Buxton is nine per 1,000; at the adjacent hamlet of Flus it is said that death takes only the very young and very old the infant and the patriarch. The sexton can almost tell whose grave he will next dig. In a similar manner at Edale, under the shadow of Kinder Scout, death goes by seniority.

At Tidewell, also in the "Peake Country," there was, quite recently, the funeral of a man sixty-four years of age, whose father and mother were still living in the parish, having been married sixty-seven years.—Sal's Journal.

Contraction of the iron used in constructing the great Eiffel tower makes that famous structure eight inches shorter in winter than it is during the hot summer months.

The relative ratios of the lower case letters in ordinary work is: z, 1; k, j, q, x 3; b, v, 7; p, w, y, 10; c, f, u, m, 12; d, l, 20; h, r, 30; a, i, n, o, s, 40; t, 45; e 60. Total, 532.

Experience approaches perfection in making as well as buying. Every season produces new styles. No less so in Men's and Boys' Suits. They all say "Largest Stock, B. S. styles and Lowest Prices". We may have been foolish in buying so much Clothing, but we have bought and here it is.

Boys' suits from $1.50 to $12.00
Men's suits from $3.50 to $20.
Men's all wool suits at $6.00.

Way, you can't get the cloth for that money. People who depend on the clothing trade alone can't give you such low prices. We are not first and in front alone in Clothing, but in Furnishing Goods as well, such as hats and nobby caps, etc. You find with us the latest styles in hats such as Columbia, Royal, Stetson (in all styles), and Fancy negligee shirts and shoes without end or limit.

We show a large line of some of the best makes in driving shoes at very low prices. Now don't forget the other side of the business. Women's wear of all kinds. A beautiful line of spring wraps in the height of fashion in form and color and far below last year's prices. Do not buy until you see our line.

Men Interested in the Caucus.

Among the candidates mentioned for chairman are C. Eby and W. L. Beers. Either of these two gentlemen would certainly make a good officer. Both have had a large experience in town or county matters; both are well versed in the needs and working of this municipality and both are successful, progressive business men. If the caucus selects either one of these two men the town will be well represented on the county board doing the coming year.

To be "mentioned" for town chairman is an honor that has been passed around promiscuously recently. W. E. Brown, A. W. Brown, C. Chace, Calvin Chace, G. S. Coon, and a dozen or more names have been on the tongues of citizens, but all mentioned above have declined with thanks.

Chris Eby desires to have it understood that he will not be a candidate for assessor against Joe McLaughlin. Had he known that Joe wished the office he would not have announced himself a candidate. Joe McLaughlin is certainly entitled to the election. His recent misfortune of losing his arm makes it necessary for him to secure some other work, and the fact that he is entirely capable and would fill the bill satisfactorily should secure him the help of all his friends.

John E. Hilber, who has served on the town board during the past year is a candidate for re-election. He desires his friends to turn out to the caucus and see that he is nominated.

George O'Donnell, the present street commissioner, is a candidate for another term. Geo. has made a good overseer and will no doubt have a strong support.

Ed. L. Dimick, of the north side, will be a candidate at the caucus Saturday evening for member of the side board. Mr. Dimick is well qualified for the position and if chosen will represent his section of town in a fair and intelligent manner.

Richard Guldway is a candidate for road overseer, and desires to have his friends turn out at the caucus Saturday night and see that he is nominated. Dick has never held an office in the town and is qualified for the one he seeks.

P. W. Nichols is a candidate for re-election to the office of Justice of the Peace.

A DIVE RAIDED.

The Notorious Hixon Resort Again Furnishes a Mass for the Court.

Sheriff Brazell went over to Hixon last week and arrested Mrs. Mollie Taylor, wife of the defunct and desperate Felix, and her bar tender, Bob Grammer, for keeping a disreputable house. Their preliminary examination was held in the municipal court here, by Justice Nicholids, Saturday. Mrs. Taylor waived examination and Grammer was also bound over to the circuit court. Both are now in jail awaiting trial. On Monday the sheriff returned with another batch on the same charge. This time he brought George Taylor and his wife Ellen. Their examination was fixed for today at 2 p. m., and their bonds placed at $450 each, which have not been furnished. J. W. McCormick appeared for Dist. Atty. Miller, and Dillett & Walker for the Taylors.

The County Judgeship.

Every citizen of the county, when he goes to the polls Tuesday, should bear in mind the importance of the county judgeship election. That the people and the county will be best served by the best man for the place, there can be no question. The New North supports the candidacy of J. W. McCormick because it believes him to be the best man for the place. He is an attorney of ability and a man of unquestioned character. His administration of the office has been beyond complaint, and the rights of minors and widows before whom their cases in future will come, demand that such a man occupy the office. Mr. Briggs, his opponent, is a good citizen, a man of good principles and one of whom none can say aught as to character or worthiness. In that respect he is fully the equal of Judge McCormick. But he is not a lawyer nor sufficiently versed in the proceedings of a county court to give the people as good service as Mr. McCormick can and does. Moreover, the county judge should always be found in his office—six days of the week. Any parties who have had business before the court can testify to the value of this one point alone. The New North hopes and trusts that Judge McCormick will be elected, and in doing so we but voice the sentiment of those who have the county's best interests at heart, and from a motive of purely public good. The office is not a vital affair to any one, but it is of vast importance to the people to have Mr. McCormick re-elected.

Buyers of clothing, gents' furnishing goods, hats, caps, boots, shoes, etc., should not forget the fact that the Red Flag store on Brown street has opened up for business again—in the old Wisconsin House building.

An Apt Alliteration.

During the hearing of the Boom case before the Assembly committee at Madison recently one of the committeemen, Patman, of Broadhead, either to kill time or to keep tabs on the testimony, jotted down each man's talk in a fashion which was extremely ingenious. Following are some of the notes he made, which fell into the printer's hands by mistake:

THE PROSECUTION

Silverthorn—In silvery sentences, strongly, simply, seriously, succinctly stated, some suspicious steals so seemingly scandalous, seems solely sordid, samples selected showing several seasons' speculations spoiled in surrounding stations. Soberly states, state should surely seek speedy solution.

Hixon—Has hard heart. He has had hopes, however, of having heavy hardships heaved headlong, hopelessness helped, and heavenly happiness hover hereafter over his home.

Jack Landers—Leisurely lounges languidly. Lateness of lowering logs lamented largely. Lack of liquid liable to leave low larder.

O'Day—Don't doubt double dealing. Denounces dam dudes for deliberately delaying desirable doing daily.

Carr—Cannot conscientiously cease censuring capitalists concerned in causing constant camping on cold cuts. Considers "corners" contagious if continuously countenanced.

THE DEFENSE

Lawyer Barnes begins—Boldly bucks Brown Bros. "bad breaks." Belabors boodlers.

A. W. Brown—Believes breezes blowing backward, badly brother booms. Business burdened by Bradley's big bluffers below beeling about broken bonds and busted banks, and believes bad blood being behind the big "bluff."

Tom Doyle—Does daily duty as driver. Denies delay in dividing or drawing down logs. Deems defeat of bill desirable. Derisively doubts damage done by defendant. Directly disputes and denounces O'Day.

Tim Lennon—Lays for Landers. Lumber lands long logged lead to lack of lumber. Late lowering of logs laughed at. Lowering logs in dam would lead to largely lamented loss.

Smith—Staggers Silverthorn. Some statistics succinctly stated sustaining sundry schemes. Says sorting not seriously slow. Swift sometimes. Should be sorry to see sorters settled six several miles from selected situation.

E. O. Brown—Boysishly baneful, but bright beyond belief. Banks on Brown Bros. big boom business.

The "World's Fair Comedy Company," started out by showing at Tomahawk last week. They played their first and last engagement there. The Tomahawk papers, with their usual lack of keen appreciation call the show "rotten," and say that the audience left before the first act was completed. Some of the troupe returned to their home, but Frank Brouette accompanied the troupe to the next town.

Jackson & Fitzpatrick, the new firm of plumbers and gasfitters have started business in good shape. Mr. Jackson has charge of the business here, and already has a good sized force of men at work. The store on Stevens st. will be stocked with a large line of goods soon. They are agents for the Richmond Victor Steam and Hot water Heaters, and also electric light wiring, steam heat work, sanitary plumbing and bath room, closet and all such work. They are an enterprising firm, and we predict success for them here.

There are times in our lives when we stray from the hot and dusty roadway into the fruitful vineyards which skirt our path. Suddenly, we find that it is not for us to eat the grapes, and that we may do no more than refresh our eyes with the sight of the purple clusters. And so back we go to the outside world with the fox's verdict, "The grapes are sour," ringing in our ears. There are different constructions to be put on that speech. I, for one, am almost persuaded that the fox spoke honestly when he made his statement. Let him at least have the benefit of the doubt. To be sure, there are people who are dishonest when they echo his words. These have tried, in vain, to pluck the rich bunches, and failing, hide their disappointment by fancying that after all they have not missed much. Or, from a meaner motive, they think their cry of "sour" will make the grapes of less value to those who have gathered them over their heads. Though this be so, still, to the credit of human nature, the greater number of us do, I think, leave the vineyard, thinking contentedly that the fruit out of reach is not yet ripe enough for our taste. Once resign ourselves to do without it, and very soon how little we care to possess it! For do we not see how quickly the bloom wears off the bunches in the hands of those whom the world calls fortunate? Have we not found that the spirit of contentment has sweetened the smaller clusters on our own level? This being so, it is surely better and wiser for our peace of mind to imagine that of all other fruit but our lawful share, we must say for the present—"The grapes are sour."—Prison Mirror, Stillwater.

ATTENTION VOTERS.

TOWN CAUCUS CALL.

A caucus of the legally qualified electors will be held at the Grand Opera House, Saturday evening, April 1, 1893, for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the various town offices.

Signed, COMMITTEE.

The mill men's union held a caucus Saturday evening to decide on whom they would support for town officers. A number of previous meetings had been held but at this one a full ticket was decided on by a majority of the 150 present, and they will go to the town caucus Saturday night to secure the nomination of the same ones. The ticket is as follows: for chairman, W. H. Brown; for supervisors, James Keenan, S. A. Tuttle; for clerk, W. W. Carr; for treasurer, W. S. Jewell; for road overseer, Peter Hanson; for justices, J. W. Brown, Jacob Jewell. Mr. Brown does not want the office, in fact does not desire the nomination. So far as the balance of the ticket is concerned, there are some good men and some mighty poor ones. The ticket is not satisfactory even in the union, and many expressions of disapproval and threats at defeating such a ticket were heard after the caucus. There are certainly many better men for some of the places on the ticket who would be willing to serve.

A Fine Opera House.

The mill men's union which has leased the Grand Opera House, is fitting it up in first class shape, and when completed it will be a decided credit to the city. The walls of the spacious auditorium have been decorated, the wood work painted bright, and everything has a new appearance. The stage fixtures and scenery which are being made by a Chicago firm, will be complete and modern. The house will be fitted with folding opera chairs which will be arranged upon and incline in such a manner that every seat view of the stage. The work of preparation will be completed in about two weeks. The first attraction will be Ida Van Courtland, with her excellent company in Lucetta Borgia and Forget-me-not.

Local Politics and Rumors.

Only four days remain before town election and those four promise to be lively enough to suit the most exacting politician. Candidates for every office are numerous, and the caucus Saturday night is sure to bring out as many independent candidates as regular nominees. While a warm strife for office is apt to result in the choice of good men, we sincerely hope that the selection of our town officers will be governed by common sense instead of prejudice and petto ambitions. The town needs good, careful men on the board of supervisors and doubly good and careful should be the chairman. The town board ought to be made up of men who own property here and who are known to be progressive, careful business men. The chairman should be some one in whom the town people are willing to trust their interests, and he should not be chosen because of his view on licensing saloons on any other matter of trivial importance as compared with the towns general welfare. The issue should be for a clean and economical administration. We want a set of officials whose names will be a guaranty to all that Rhineland will have good government the coming year. Out of the list, mentioned it is possible to select such a ticket, but from the same list, a board of supervisors who really have no qualifications can also be chosen. Let the voters all turn out to the caucus and nominate clean intelligent men.

Our Minds are Moulded by our experience from childhood to maturity; the examples that have been set us; the food that we have eaten; the trials that we have endured; the books we have read; the interchanges of thought we have had with our fellow creatures; one and all have their influence in developing our mental life.

If you are in the habit of paying high prices for poor furniture; if you have been neglecting to keep your home decorated; if you neglect buying until the last moment, and then be compelled to buy the first place you step into looking with-out around; if you get negligent in these things; what kind of an example are you setting for your children?
